

About ancient trees:

Information regarding the importance of ancient trees to the environment and the California ecosystem

Get Involved: Ways for people to get involved by planting the seeds themselves. Information regarding how to plant ancient redwoods and what is required to keep them alive after planting.

About the founders: Brief bio of the two founders and links to their websites

Donate: A donate button and information regarding how your donation money will be used.